

SAMPLE TABLE OF CONTENTS FOR 2-DAY COMMUNICATION SKILLS WORKSHOP

Chapter 1: Communicating for Your Audience

Rule #1: Communicate for Your Audience

How Business Readers Read

Using Mental Rehearsal

EXERCISE: The Value of Mental Rehearsal

Chapter 2: Making a Positive First Impression

Through the Visual Design of Documents

Overall Visual Design of a Document

Chunking through Length

Chunking through Highlighting

EXERCISE: Impact of Good Visual Design

Through Face-to-face Interactions

How to Make a Good First Impression

EXERCISE: Listening

Delivery: Speaking with Authority

Through Choice of Words

Communicate with Authority

EXERCISE Communicating with Authority

Communicate Positively

Speak with Diplomacy

EXERCISE: Communicating Positively

EXERCISE: Using Positive, Authoritative Language

Chapter 3: Planning a Message Strategy

POWER*: A Model for Creating a Message

Message Planner

EXERCISE: The Impact of Ineffective Messages

WHAT: Know Your Message Type

WHY: Clarify Business Objectives

Consider Your Audience

BODY: Identify Your Main Points

NEXT STEPS: Describe an Action Plan

EXAMPLE: Filled-in Message Planner

EXERCISE: Planning a Message

Chapter 4: Principles of Effective Organization

Organizing Principle #1: Use Effective Logic

TELL Message

SELL Message

EXERCISE: Lay Out the Logic of Your Message

Organizing Principle #2: Help Readers Find Key Information

The “5-box” Format for Written Messages

The “5-box” Format Adapted for a Face-to-face Meeting

Chapter 5: Effective Openings

Box 1: Effective Written Openings

EXERCISE: Writing Your Opening

Effective Verbal Openings

Physical Relaxation and Vocal Variety

EXERCISE: Delivering Your Opening

Chapter 6: E-mails and Voice Messages

E-mails

EXERCISE: Writing a 1-screen E-mail

Special Techniques for Phone & Conference Calls; Voice & Instant Messages

EXERCISE: Leaving an Effective Voice Mail

Chapter 7: Preparing Complex Messages

Background Sections

Toplining

Aligning Toplines with the Message’s WHY

Putting Toplines in a Logical Order

EXERCISE: Developing Toplines

Developing Effective Body Points in Verbal Messages

EXERCISE: Writing a Body Point

Using Graphic Aids Effectively

EXERCISE: Improve a Graphic Aid

Chapter 8: Effective Closings

Box 4: Issues

Box 5: Follow-up

Developing an Effective Closing

EXERCISE: Writing a Closing

Communicating with Diplomacy

Fundamentals of Answering Questions and Objections

Advanced Techniques for Hostile Situations

Planning Worksheet for Questions and Objections

EXERCISE: Delivering a Closing and Answering a Question

Chapter 9: Communicating Concisely

Use Strong Verbs

Use Single Words Instead of Wordy Phrases

Use Easily Understood Words

Use Words Correctly: Diction

Write Effective Sentences

EXERCISE: Writing Concise, Effective Sentences

EXERCISE: Fun with Jargon

Chapter 10: Editing and Revising for Quality Control

Editing for Quality Control

Coaching Others to Write More Effectively

Writing to Avoid Legal Liability

EXERCISE: Videotaped persuasive interview with consultant confidential feedback

Appendices

Suggested Reading

Speaker's Checklist/Evaluation

Extra Copies of Worksheets

Index